

ANGELES CITY

Angeles City is a prosperous metropolis that was formerly the capital of the Philippine Republic during the Filipino-American War. It is located in central Luzon, roughly 75 km north of Manila.

Angeles City is loved for:

- Its shopping and nightlife which are its top draws.
- The Balibago entertainment district and Clark Freeport and Special Economic Zone are its highlights.
- The Clark Freeport Zone contains a mix of leisure centers, shopping malls, industrial parks, and the Clark International Airport.
- For outdoor activities, you'll find the beautiful Mount Arayat National Park just east of the city and Mount Pinatubo – an active volcano to the west.

Zoocobia

- Located at Paradise Ranch, Pampanga - Sitio Moncayo, northwest of Sacobid River.
- Dubbed as “the happiest place in Clark”, this is a unique combination of theme park and petting zoo.
- You can spend the day with animals from all over the world or trying out the adrenaline-filled and heart-pumping attractions that Zoocobia has to offer!

Puning Hot Spring

- Located in the province of Pampanga, is one of the natural hot spring created by the eruption of Mt. Pinatubo in 1991.
- Puning has pools varying in sizes with hot water ranging from 40 degrees to 70 degrees.
- The hot spring is managed by the local community of Aetas and the first inhabitants of the land since the eruption.
